

HERITAGE YORK

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION/RENEWAL FORM

Purposes of Heritage York:

- To bring together those people who are dedicated to the conservation, restoration, development, interpretation and promotion of the history & fabric of the former City of York. Currently our focus is on Lambton House
- To serve as a caretaker for historic documents, photographs, etc., including Hurricane Hazel, that were the foundation of the development of the lower Humber River and surrounding area,
- To function as an interpreter of the natural, built and cultural heritage in and/or near the lower Humber River watershed
- To support other like projects within our catchment area

Anyone interested in supporting and/or participating in Heritage York's mandate may become a member by paying dues.
